Job Location

Description

Warm, Engaged Nanny Needed in Frontenac

A family in Frontenac is looking for a warm, dependable nanny to care for their toddler and infant. They would love to find someone who enjoys getting to know each child's personality, understands the needs of two little ones at different stages, and brings a calm, attentive approach to the day.

The ideal nanny has hands on infant experience, is confident caring for two young children at once, and puts safety first. The family appreciates the Montessori philosophy and would love a nanny who encourages independence, curiosity, and learning through play. Sensory activities, outdoor time, and opportunities for the children to explore their surroundings are all encouraged.

Responsibilities include:

- Providing attentive, safe care for both children
- Following the infant's hunger cues and preparing and feeding bottles as needed
- Planning engaging, age appropriate activities for the toddler, including sensory play
- Encouraging outdoor time and hands on learning experiences
- Supporting the children's development through play, exploration, and daily routines
- Using nap time to prepare bottles and take care of the children's laundry

Ideal candidate:

- Has experience caring for infants and toddlers, preferably at the same time
- Is warm, dependable, safety conscious, and attentive to each child's needs
- Communicates clearly and builds a positive relationship with parents
- Has strong professional family references

This is a wonderful opportunity for a nanny who loves the infant and toddler stages and enjoys creating a nurturing environment where little ones can learn, play, and grow.
