Part-Time Nanny Job University City, MO

Job Location

63130, University City, MO, USA

Description

A University City, MO family is seeking a warm, loving, and engaging part-time nanny. The ideal candidate is passionate about working with kids, approaches caregiving with a zest for life, and fosters a nurturing and positive environment with a firm yet gentle approach. We value traditional family values, clean eating, and building meaningful relationships, and we are looking for a nanny who will feel like a true part of our family.

Key Responsibilities:

- Greeting our children after school and preparing lunch, ensuring they sit together at the table to eat
- Leading engaging activities before rest time and planning a fun, energy-filled activity post-nap
- Taking the children on outings (weather permitting) or creating enjoyable, developmentally appropriate activities at home
- Supporting the development of fine motor skills, social skills, and emotional awareness

What We're Looking For:

- A nanny who uses a redirection approach to guidance, establishing clear yet gentle boundaries
- A background in special education or occupational therapy (preferred)
- Someone who is proactive, reliable, and communicative
- Enthusiasm and genuine love for working with children
